Lucky Numbers?

The secret behind picking those winning numbers is...there is no secret

Forty per cent of lottery millionaires use Lucky Dip[®] and the rest choose their own numbers – whether that is a random selection off of the top of their heads, or a collection of favourite numbers based on family birthdays and significant dates

It seems that some winners know that they are going to win – 38% state that they had always believed they would win a lot of money one day, while half the respondents (50%) report having dreamt of winning a bundle of cash

Winning may stem from positive thinking, as half of the millionaires surveyed (51%) consider themselves to be lucky people.

Read our information about syndicate play on the website. Remember the best way of increasing your chances is to play more lines.

Tickets please...

One of the biggest challenges facing winners is holding on to their ticket until they make their claim to get it verified and their prize paid out

For 24% of winners, a bag, purse or wallet seems the most sensible place to keep it safe, 14% choose to sleep with the ticket under their pillow, 10% stick it in their underwear, and 2% of winners seek holy protection by putting their ticket in the Bible

Another 2% have kept it under a budgie cage – an interesting take on the traditional guard dog!

This months joke !

Dear John,

I have been unable to sleep since I broke off our engagement. I was such a fool. Please forgive me. Your absence is breaking my heart. Nobody could ever take your place. I love you with all my heart.

Please take me back into your heart, Wilma.

P.S. Congratulations on winning this week's lottery.
